50 YEARS OF DIAMOND WORLD

OUR JOURNEY OVER 50 YEARS

On the occasion of the golden jubilee of the Diamond World magazine, industry stalwarts share their thoughts and send congratulatory notes and messages of encouragement

Diamond World is India's leading magazine with an international stature. The content is so relevant and without bias. A true voice of the industry. I congratulate DW & IJ teams for their successful 50 years and wish them all the very best for another 100 years!

On the occasion of the Golden Jubilee Anniversary of the Diamond World magazine, all of us at Kunming Diamonds congratulate the DW team.

Diamond World has found the right mix of passionate content writing, timely trend updates, market analysis without heavy math, and sound approaches to the industry regulations, while keeping up with times. They have boldly filled the gap of providing insights on a wide range of challenging issues that confront decision makers in our industry. Over the years, they have grown into a truly global magazine and news provider as well, which adds to the value of the publication.

Looking forward to many more years of lively commentary by leading editors on the gems and jewellery industry's most important and pressing news.
