Venus Jewel founder receives Lifetime Achievement Award

Shri Sevantilal Premchand Shah, founder of major Indian diamantaire Venus Jewel, was recently bestowed the Lifetime Achievement Award for his contribution to the growth and development of the Indian diamond industry.

The accolade was given during the India Gem & Jewellery Awards organised by the Gems and Jewellery Export Promotion Council (GJEPC) in Mumbai on March 18.

According to Venus Jewels, Shah has been conferred various honours and distinctions in the past as an influential member of India's diamond industry.

Shah founded Venus Jewel in 1969 with his brother, Shri Ramniklal Shah. The company has risen to become one of the most trusted diamond manufacturers globally. The company has a state-of-the-art manufacturing facility in Surat. Venus Jewel is also a pioneer in large-sized and high-value diamond processing in India, according to the company.
